

Individual studies in Business Administration

Individuella studier i företagsekonomi

7.5 credits

Ladok Code: 21FE1C

Version: 10.0

Established by: Committee for Education in Business and Working Life 2022-08-22

Valid from: Spring 2023

Education Cycle: First cycle

Main Field of Study (Progressive Specialisation): Business Administration (G2F)

Disciplinary Domain: Social sciences

Prerequisites: Passed courses of 60 ECTS in Business Administration.

Subject Area: Business Administration

Grading Scale: Seven-degree grading scale (A-F)

Content

This is a self-study course, which means that each student chooses a subject to study. The supervisor and the student decide upon material to be analysed, on method and on planning of time. Each part of the course is to be documented.

The course contains the following parts:

- subject specification
- raw report seminar
- halfway seminar
- final seminar

Learning Outcomes

The objective of the course is providing the student with the opportunity to freely study a specific subject that interests them. From a theoretical or practical perspective, the individual student is to work with problemising the chosen area, thereby deepening and widening his/her previous knowledge in business administration.

Upon completion of the course, the student is expected to demonstrate

1. skills and abilities in planning, carrying out and presenting work
2. abilities in identifying and phrasing a problem
3. skills and abilities in creating a frame of reference
4. skills and abilities in choosing scientific method
5. abilities in analysing material in the chosen field and draw conclusions

Forms of Teaching

Tuition is conducted through seminars and via individual supervision. The literature is in English.

The language of instruction is English.

Forms of Examination

The course is examined by a written report (learning outcomes 1-5). The grades is given according to ECTS (A-F).The grade received for the report is also the grade for the course.

Student rights and obligations at examination are according to guidelines and rules for the University of Borås.

If the student has received a decision/recommendation regarding special pedagogical support from the University of Borås due to disability or special needs, the examiner has the right to make accommodations when it comes to examination. The examiner must, based on the objectives of the course syllabus, determine whether the examination can be adapted in accordance with the decision/recommendation.

Student rights and obligations at examination are in accordance with guidelines and rules for the University of Borås.

Literature and Other Teaching Materials

Literature is chosen in consultation with the supervisor.

Student Influence and Evaluation

The course is evaluated in accordance with the school's guidelines, in which students' views will be obtained. The results of the evaluation will be published and fed back to participating and prospective students in accordance with the school's guidelines, and will provide the basis for future course and program development.

Miscellaneous

The course is for international students.