Both University of Twente and Saxion University of Applied Sciences are located in the city Enschede, “Enschede is a medium-sized town near the German border, situated in the east of the Netherlands in the province of Overijssel. Enschede has approximately 160,000 inhabitants. It is the biggest city in a region called Twente. Though there is little left of the textile industry now, some of the factories and the houses of wealthy textile barons can still be found throughout the city as monuments.

Germany is within a stone’s throw from the city: Enschede is about 60kms from Munster in Germany, 150kms from Amsterdam, and 195 kms from Rotterdam. Every half hour a train leaves for Utrecht, Amsterdam and Rotterdam.”¹⁶
