Sup de Pub

“Founded 3 years ago, our school, specialised in advertising and marketing communications, has never ceased to stay in tune with market trends. All our programs reflect the ongoing developments that affect the way companies and their brands communicate. Working in close collaboration with professionals and alumni we have been well-positioned to anticipate the radical changes to the communications world brought about by the rapid and massive arrival of digital media over the last ten years. The specialised digital courses today account for already 40% of all the programs offered at Sup de Pub.”⁴

Sup de Pub has four different English-taught programmes available for incoming exchange students:

- Social Media Strategy
- Strategic Planning & International Brand Strategy
- Communication & Brand Positioning in the Luxury Industries
- Graphic Design & Communication

Students selected to study at Sup de Pub are not guaranteed their first-choice programme as it depends on number of places available, however, students have historically been allowed to enroll their first-choice programme.

Although it says courses are taught at master’s level, these are available for exchange students from Borås. Sup de Pub has a rather practical approach in teaching, where a majority of the teachers come directly from the industry. Student testimonials have expressed the semester to be perceived as intense and students should be aware school days can be rather long.

One academic semester of full time studies correspond to 30 ECTS.

Number of places: 6 students per academic year of which 3 places are dedicated to TGDEP.

Amsterdam Fashion Institute

"Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences (AUAS) students are immersed in Amsterdam during their studies. This bustling cosmopolitan city, and capital of the Netherlands, is home to people from 181 nations and English is widely spoken. Amsterdam is an international business hub, renowned as a hotbed of education and research in all conceivable areas: culture and society, trade, logistics, aviation, shipping, information technology, sports, healthcare and more.

AMFI – Amsterdam Fashion Institute students explore the fashion world through the prism of three key dimensions: design, management and branding. AMFI is located along the Amstel river on the Mauritskade. The historic building once housed the Amstel Brewery and maintains many of its monumental features. The Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences (AUAS) is within bicycling distance of the historic city center, as well as popular places such as De Pijp, the Vondelpark and the Westergasfabriek."⁶

University of Twente

“The University of Twente is a multicultural community of talented, ambitious people that offers students, scientists and educators from around the world the best possible conditions. Like our innovative and vibrant campus with world-class facilities for crossing boundaries and solving complex problems.

The University of Twente stands out among universities by offering unique and highly successful educational programmes. It does so by leading the way in responding to the demands of society and creating relevant combinations between disciplines. The ever-evolving world of technology showers us with opportunities but also gives rise to new questions and dilemmas. By combining research areas, the University of Twente provides an effective response to these challenges and succeeds in answering the questions posed by society: High Tech Human Touch.”⁸

For more information about the city Enschede, please see the section of Saxion.

Exchange students from TGDEP are recommended to explore the course offer in BMS – Business Administration, however, other courses might be of relevance as well.

Both University of Twente and Saxion University of Applied Sciences are located in the city Enschede.

“Enschede is a medium-sized town near the German border, situated in the east of the Netherlands in the province of Overijssel. Enschede has approximately 160,000 inhabitants. It is the biggest city in a region called Twente. Though there is little left of the textile industry now, some of the factories and the houses of wealthy textile barons can still be found throughout the city as monuments.

Germany is within a stone’s throw from the city: Enschede is about 60kms from Munster in Germany, 150kms from Amsterdam, and 195 kms from Rotterdam. Every half hour a train leaves for Utrecht, Amsterdam and Rotterdam.”¹⁰
